Whitehall Choir

Now in its 64th season, the Whitehall Choir has become a regular fixture on the London concert scene. Consisting of enthusiastic singers from diverse backgrounds and professions, the choir is an ambitious, friendly group which strives towards the highest standards of musicianship. The repertoire includes music from the 15th to the 21st century, which the choir performs in central London venues and sometimes abroad: in May 2007 there will be a Whitehall Choir tour to Toulouse.

Paul Spicer – Musical Director and Conductor

Paul Spicer is well known as a recording artist and producer, author, academic and, above all, choral conductor. He is widely acknowledged as one of the UK's leading exponents of British music. In addition to the Whitehall Choir, he also conducts the Birmingham Bach Choir, the Finzi Singers and the Chamber Choir of the Royal College of Music, where he is Professor of Choral Conducting.

Singing with Whitehall Choir

The choir rehearses in St Stephen's Church, Rochester Row, Victoria, from 6.30pm to 9pm on Tuesdays.

New members are welcome subject to a place being available in the Choir. Admission to the choir is by a short audition, usually held after attending one or two rehearsals. For details, call Catherine Bakhshi on 020-7215 3875 (daytime only) and visit our website: www.whitehallchoir.org.uk.
