

Whitehall Choir

The Whitehall Choir is looking for talented singers for its new season starting in September 2016.

We offer reduced subscription rates for younger members, such as full-time students and those starting work in London, as well as the opportunity to audition for a limited number of free places offered on merit.

The Choir is directed by the renowned choral conductor and composer, Paul Spicer and our accompanist is Ian Tindale, winner of the 2015 Kathleen Ferrier Accompanist Award. We stage termly concerts at well known London venues including St John's Smith Square and St James Piccadilly.

For more details of how to join, see overleaf.

Join us!

Rehearsals

We rehearse weekly on Tuesdays during term time from 6.30pm to 9.00pm. Our regular rehearsal venue is St Peter's church, Eaton Square SW1W 9AL, a few minutes' walk from Victoria Station. We open our new season with a performance of Blackford's Mirror of Perfection, paired with Mozart's Coronation Mass.

Join us

We are an amateur choir of 65 members and have vacancies in all voice parts. If you are interested in singing with us, please send an email to joinus@whitehallchoir.org with details of your singing experience. We will send you information on how to join for our new term in September. All new members are required to pass a short audition. If you are interested in one of the free places, please indicate this and a more extensive audition will be arranged.

For more details visit www.whitehallchoir.org